The International Library Appeals to All Classes

Hebrews and Christians, Protestants and Catholics, clergymen and lawyers commend the International Library in highest terms. The school authorities in New York, Brooklyn and many other cities indorse the International. Eminent literary men and women have written enthusiastically about it. The heads of the greatest public libraries in the world have examined the International and say it is the greatest collection of good reading ever brought together in a single set.

The two classes of people that care most for the International are the ambitious young and middle-aged people who cannot afford a college training, and the deeply read book men, who find never-ending delight in renewing their acquaintance with the world of books through the International's carefully selected and ably

If there can be a royal road to knowledge of all that is best in books, the International Library is that road. Who reads it thoroughly knows books and authors as few college men do. Every bit of it is

The Manama/Gr Store. Summer Dress for Women

WHEN we say (as we do say) that there was never such another showing as this in any American store, we speak with the calm confidence of accurate knowledge. Facts as big as this need no verbal embroidery. No exaggeration could be bigger than many of our simple truths.

Largest in quantities, greatest in varieties, supreme in exclusiveness, unrivalled in beauties. A quartette of stout claims.

Add a fifth; -we permit no lower price than our lowest price. Whatever we sell is fairly priced, and no price is fair that is higher than others ask for the same qualities. So, when we say fair prices, we say it all.

Summer gowns have the preference in the present demand, of course. Twelve Dollars to Sixty Dollars. Specialties in golfing, wheeling, walking and yachting costumes are abundant and constantly new. Tailored suits in light-weight fabrics add the bargain element. We show some serge suits at $7.50, that include lines that have been selling at $12. At $10, suits that have been $18. At $20, suits that were $38. At $25, suits that were $45.

Suits ready to wear.

A part of this story is identical with the other—the cools part. We have a very string regard for serges, developed from a close acquaintines with good ones extending over a period of more than a quarter of a century. We like real serges, and aboministe their imitations. The kind we use ourselves you may judge from this—

We positively guarantee all cur serges, even in the lowest-priced suit, to be all wool and nothing else; that the color will remain perfect under all conditions, that all seems are sewn with silk.

This promise holds good indefinitely—as long as enough of ine suit is left to wear with deceivey.
